

English Language Required Level for Exchange Students: B1

- the form must be signed by the student and the responsible person at the partner university
- the form has to be enclosed with the application form of the exchange student

A good level of English is required in order to become an exchange student at the University of Thessaly. Teaching typically involves student participation, class discussion, project work and student presentations. We ask you and your home university to document your English skills through this language requirement form which describes the required English level. We require a B1 level of the English language, according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

To follow courses offered in English, your competence in the English language should comply with the following description:

You should be able to:

- understand general and academic topics presented in English both orally and in writing
- master a varied vocabulary which enables you to participate in conversations and discussions in English
- produce and articulate your viewpoints in English, both orally and in writing
- give a detailed, coherent oral and written account of a known topic in fluent and generally correct English
